NOTES

KENTUCKY IMPROVES AT ALABAMA

The Wildcats made improvements on Feb. 5 in a 196.775-195.525 loss to No. 4 Alabama. Kentucky earned its ninth event title of the season against Alabama, edging the team on balance beam 49.025-49.000 for its fourth beam title of the season. Freshman Sidney Dukes posted a season team-best 9.875 on vault, while classmate Alex Hyland tied the season team-best on beam, scoring a 9.9.

DUKES NAMED FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Following a stellar performance against the Alabama Crimson Tide, the Southeastern Conference office announced Tuesday, Feb. 9, that freshman Sidney Dukes was named SEC Freshman of the Week.

The Tyler, Texas native continued to play a key role in Kentucky's overall production. The first-year Wildcat led the Blue and White to a team-best score this season of 195.525 behind a personal-best 39.375 in the all-around, good for second overall.

Dukes made her mark on beam, coming in second to classmate Alex Hyland with a 9.875. The freshman also finished top five on vault (9.875, team best), bars (9.8) and floor (9.825).

UK FINDS INDIVIDUAL SUCCESS AGAINST GEORGIA

Despite the recent defeat at the hands of Georgia, 196.275-195.025, Kentucky saw some improvements in individual results. Freshman Sidney Dukes set new personal bests in the all-around (39.300) and floor exercise (9.875), while Montana Whittle (beam, 9.8), Cori Rechenmacher (bars, 9.8) and Katie Stuart (floor, 9.825) set new season marks in their respective events.

KENTUCKY POSTS SEASON BEST BARS AND BEAM SCORES AT LSU

Kentucky fell to 1-2 on the season on Jan. 22 against LSU, 196.575-195.100. The Cats had some silver linings in the process, posting season-best team bars and beam routines. Freshman Sidney Dukes claimed her sixth event title after scoring a 9.900 on balance beam, the first 9.900 or higher by a Kentucky individual this season.

UK IMPROVES, DROPS SECOND MEET AT AUBURN

Despite impressive performances from freshman Sidney Dukes, junior Taylor Puryear and sophomore Cori Rechenmacher, the UK gymnastics team fell short on Friday evening, as the Auburn Tigers handed Kentucky its first loss of 2016, 196.275-195.175. Dukes' 39.125 was good for her second all-around title, while Puryear (floor, 9.825) and Rechenmacher (beam, 9.850) both took home individual event titles.

WILDCATS OPEN SEASON WITH WIN ON EXCITE NIGHT

Kentucky kicked off the 2016 season with a win on Excite Night, defeating the Ball State Cardinals 194.825 - 191.650. Freshmen contributing early made up a large part of the narrative, as 17 of UK's 24 spots were taken by freshmen. Sidney Dukes took the All-Around title, scoring a 39.125 on the evening while claiming both the vault and bars titles. Classmate Alex Hyland earned the beam title with a 9.875, while junior Taylor Puryear took the floor title with a 9.875.

KENTUCKY ADDS TWO FOR 2017

The University of Kentucky gymnastics program has signed two freshmen to letters of national intent for the 2017 season in Alaina Kwana and Erynne Allen. Freshman Katrina Coca also signed during the period, joining Kentucky this January as a mid-year enrollee.

Kwan, an Elite Level gymnast from Cypress, Cali., comes to UK following an impressive pre-college career with AOGC in Los Angeles. Kwan is the first ever world championship qualifier to sign at Kentucky, qualifying for the 2015 championships in Scotland. In 2015, Kwan was a state champion in level 10 and earned a Regional floor championship scoring a 9.650, while earning bronze in all-around with a 38.425 overall score. Kwan qualified for nationals at level 10, but forewent the competition to train and qualify as an Elite. She qualified for the United States Classic and placed seventh on the floor and ninth in all-around at the meet. Kwan is set to graduate from Cypress High School this May.

Allen, a Level 10 gymnast who competed at Paulding Gymnastics, rounds out the 2017 recruiting class. On the floor, Allen most recently qualified for Regionals after claiming the gold in the all-around and vault at Georgia's state meet. Off the floor, Allen has an impressive academic record while acting as a member of the National Honors Society, English Honors Society and Beta Club at South Paulding high school, where she is expected to graduate in the spring.

HEAD COACH TIM GARRISON

Tim Garrison enters his fifth season as the University of Kentucky gymnastics head coach after leading the team to unprecedented success in his first four seasons.

In 2015, Garrison led the Wildcats a 5-3 home record while posting some of the best scores for UK to date. On Mar. 6, 2015, Garrison led the team to post a 196.575 team score - good for second all-time in Kentucky history. The Wildcats flourished during 2015 in both uneven bars and beam, with Garrison guiding the team to the second and fifth best results in school history, respectively.

Under Garrison's tutelage, Sydney Waltz and Cori Rechenmacher became Kentucky's first two SEC All-Freshmen team selections. Additionally, Waltz became the first Wildcat to compete in the NCAA Championships as an all-arounder since Aronda Primault did so in 2002. Waltz finished 15th overall, while taking 11th place on floor. Garrison also added two All-SEC selections in Waltz and then-sophomore Taylor Puryear during the 2015 campaign.

In 2014, Garrison led the Wildcats to a 6-1 home record, its best mark at Memorial Coliseum since 1991, a school-record NCAA Regional score for the second consecutive season and an individual appearance at the NCAA Championships.

With an upset win over No. 11 Auburn, UK scored a 196.275, the fifth-best team score in program history. The Wildcats totaled two scores that mark in the top 10 all-time and four in the top 20 in school history.

Along with a school-record NCAA Regional score of 195.925, senior Audrey Harrison tied for the win on balance beam. The win qualified Harrison for the NCAA Championships, marking UK's first appearance at the national championship meet since 2010.

Kentucky had a record-setting 2013 campaign that saw numerous school records fall. UK earned a ninth-consecutive NCAA Regional bid with a school-record regional qualifying score of 196.06 after breaking the team best score twice. A 196.775 in the regular season finale at Penn State bested the previous high score, set earlier in the season at Ball State.

The Wildcats notched three wins against SEC opponents, the most in program history and earned a 3-3-1 league mark, also a school best. All three wins were against teams ranked in the top 15, with two over top-nine foes. In postseason play, UK tallied the program's highest-ever NCAA Regional team score of 195.575 and finished fourth at the regional.

The Kentucky gymnastics team wrapped up a historic 2013 season by claiming the prestigious "Team of the Year Award" at the annual CATSPY Awards along with two individual awards. Garrison was named Coach of the Year alongside baseball coach Gary Henderson and rifle coach Harry Mullins, while sophomore Shannon Mitchell picked up the Scratch Award, given to the top non-scholarship student-athlete.

The Wildcats finished 2012 with three consecutive scores of 195.875 or higher, Kentucky's best-ever three meet stretch. UK also sealed the first winning regular season since 2008 in Garrison's first campaign.

Garrison guided the Wildcats to a final No. 25 ranking with a National Qualifying Score of 390.240 in 2012. The ranking made Garrison the first head coach in school history to take his team to a top-25 final ranking in his first season.

The Wildcats earned back-to-back victories over top-25 teams when UK took down Southeastern Conference foe Auburn at home and highly ranked Illinois on the road midway through the season. The Wildcats also posted just the 10th score of 196 or higher in school history with a 196.025 against George Washington and Ball State during Garrison's inaugural season.

Garrison arrived at UK after helping the Huskers reach new heights with two NCAA Super Six appearances and two Big 12 Conference championships. The native of Conroe, Texas, served as the Huskers' vault, floor exercise and strength and conditioning coach, while also helping in all facets of recruiting.

In his five years at Nebraska, Garrison was responsible for producing 10 NCAA All-Americans, while his vault and floor teams consistently ranked as one of the top-10 teams in the nation. In 2011, Garrison helped lead the Huskers back to the NCAA Super Six Finals, where they matched their best finish in school history, finishing fourth. Two of Garrison's vault performers ended the individual finals in the top five, while two other gymnasts were in the top 12 on floor.

In his first year on the job in Lincoln in 2007, Garrison's vault team finished sixth in the nation, while the floor squad was in the top five of the final rankings. In 2009, Nebraska was ranked sixth nationally on floor and in 2010 the Huskers were fifth on vault. Garrison's vault and floor teams had an excellent season in 2011 with the Huskers finishing among the nation's best on vault (third) and floor (seventh). Nebraska made the NCAA Tournament in each of Garrison's five years, advancing to nationals three times.

Prior to Nebraska, Garrison developed a reputation as one of the most successful club coaches in the country, serving as a head coach for SCEGA Gymnastics in Temecula, Calif., for 10 years. SCEGA Gymnastics is one of the largest and most thriving gymnastics teams in the nation. While with SCEGA, Garrison produced 27 national champions, 10 Junior Olympic National Team members and four Elite National Team members. For his efforts, Garrison was named Coach of the Year for Southern California by USA Gymnastics a impressive five times, including four consecutive from 2001-04.

In 2001, Garrison coached Rachel Tidd to the World Championships in Ghent, Belgium, where she captured a team bronze medal and finished eighth on beam. A year earlier, Garrison coached Tidd to a 10th-place showing in the 2000 U.S. Olympic Trials. Garrison spent three years at SCATS Gymnastics in Huntington Beach, Calif., where he was responsible for conditioning and meet preparation for a group of optional and compulsory gymnasts. During his time there, Garrison produced a national qualifier every year at both the Junior Olympic National Championships and the Elite Classic competitions. Garrison also coached at Karolyi's Gymnastics in Houston, Texas, alongside famed former U.S. Olympic Team coach Bela Karolyi.

Garrison and his wife, Rachel, served as the directors for the Nebraska School of Gymnastics during their time in Lincoln. The duo successfully increased the enrollment in the program from 40 participants to over 170 members. Garrison also was named the USAG Coach of the Year in 2009 for Nebraska.

Garrison graduated from California State University at Fullerton in 1995 with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. The Garrisons have three daughters: Rayley, Taige and Teagan; and two sons: Reece and Rylan.

ASSISTANT COACH CHUCK DICKERSON

Chuck Dickerson enters his ninth season with the Kentucky gymnastics program, where he coaches vault and floor as a key component of head coach Tim Garrison's staff.

Dickerson was retained as an assistant coach when Garrison arrived in Lexington before the 2012 season.

Dickerson, who was the 2010 Gymnastics Assistant Coach of the Year for the central region by the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches, has enjoyed eight very successful seasons as an assistant coach for Kentucky.

In 2015, Dickerson continued to play a key role in Kentucky's success, as he helped guide UK to a top-10 finish for the program all-time with a 49.300 team score on floor at the SEC championships. Dickerson also continued to be instrumental on the vault, helping NCAA qualifier Sydney Waltz achieve the fifth highest vault score in Kentucky's history.

In 2014, Dickerson helped lead the Wildcats to a 6-1 home record, its best mark at Memorial Coliseum since 1991, a school-record NCAA Regional score for the second consecutive season and an individual appearance at the NCAA Championships.

With an upset win over No. 11 Auburn, UK scored a 196.275, the fifth-best team score in program history. In the win, Kentucky's floor team, which Dickerson oversees, scored a 49.650, the highest score on the event in program history. One of the best teams on floor in the country in 2014, Dickerson coached UK to three scores on floor that rank in the top four in program history.

Dickerson previously coached vault and uneven bars for the Wildcats, guiding UK to a school-record team score on vault of 49.4, while the Wildcats tied a school record team-score on bars with a 49.325.

Dickerson helped the UK gymnastics team steadily improve its efforts on the vault apparatus since his arrival in Lexington in 2008. Kentucky has ranked among the top 18 schools on the event each season under Dickerson. The Wildcats set a school record with a 49.150 regional qualifying score on vault in 2009 while in 2010 then-sophomore Whitney Rose (Frisco, Texas) became UK's first gymnast to qualify for nationals since 2006 when she scored a 9.900 to tie for first place.

In 2009, Dickerson coached the vault squad to top-20 status all year long, peaking at No. 7. It was the second year in a row the vault line-up finished the year top 15. One of the lead vaulters, Emily Green, earned a 9.950, the first mark of that caliber on vault since 2003. Green dominated the event averaging a 9.85. Also grabbing recognition for her talent was Whitney Rose who also became a solid vault worker and was named the SEC Freshman of the Year.

With over 25 years of coaching experience, Dickerson is able to assist the Wildcats in recruiting top talent. In 2008, Dickerson helped sign fellow Tyler, Texas, native Storey Morris, Rose of Frisco, Texas, the 2008 Texas State vault and all-around champion, and three-time national bar champion Jennifer Taylor of Tulsa, Okla.

Since 2004, the Tyler, Texas, native had been working in his hometown at Texas East Gymnastics where he coached former UK gymnast, Storey Morris. In both 2006 and 2007, he qualified a gymnast for the USA Championships to go along with his numerous national qualifiers in his four-year span.

Prior to his time at Texas East, Dickerson spent eight years at Rowland/Ballard Gymnastics in Kingwood, Texas. While there, he had seven athletes receive Division I scholarships and sent 15 on to the national championships. In 2002, he earned the great honor of being voted the Texas USA Gymnastics Coach of the Year by his peers.

Early on in his career, Dickerson spent 10 years working under famed coach Bela Karolyi. In his coaching career, he has coached three national champions.

Dickerson resides in Lexington.

ASSISTANT COACH RACHEL GARRISON

Rachel Garrison joins the Kentucky gymnastics staff in 2015 as an assistant coach following a four year period volunteering with the program, working with UK since 2011.

Garrison's coaching experience spans 20 years, where she developed gymnasts ranging from beginners to level 10 and elite status gymnasts.

Prior to her time as a volunteer assistant for the Wildcats, Garrison served as a program director at the Nebraska School of Gymnastics in Lincoln, Neb., for five years. While in Lincoln, Garrison guided gymnasts to qualify for Junior Olympic nationals in each of her five years. Garrison also produced a regional beam champion during her tenure with the School of Gymnastics. She also played a critical role in recruitment, successfully increasing the enrollment in the program from 40 participants to over 170 members.

Before heading to Nebraska, Garrison spent over a decade coaching at multiple clubs across California, with the most prominent being SCEGA in Temecula, Calif.

Garrison is a graduate of San Diego State University, where she earned her Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology in 1999 while specializing in pre-physical therapy.

Rachel is married to and resides with Kentucky gymnastics head coach Tim Garrison. The Garrisons have three daughters: Rayley, Taige and Teagan; and two sons: Reece and Rylan.
