Bernard Named Student-Athlete of the Week

Bernard

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (January 30, 2017) - Following two career-best performances, as well as a season-high routine, in the No. 25-ranked Mountaineer gymnastics team's sweep at the WVU Coliseum on January 29, junior Robyn Bernard has been named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week, presented by University Apartments.

Bernard, a native of Silver Spring, Maryland, scored a career-high on floor exercise and uneven bars to finish sixth and eighth, respectively, on the events. She also opened the meet with a season-best 9.8 on vault, good enough for eighth place.

Bernard's scores helped the Mountaineers (4-2, 1-1) achieve a season-best 196.3 in wins over No. 7 Denver (195.9), Towson (194.775) and Temple (193.625). WVU's win over the Pioneers, the team's first Big 12 victory of the season, is its first triumph against a top-10 team since 2012.

Quote from coach Mike Carey after Sunday's loss at Texas: "When the game was on the line, they played better than we did. They executed and played harder. We gave up some picks (in the fourth quarter) and gave up some threes to (Brooke) McCarty. I thought she was the key during that 12-0 stretch."

Last Week in Track and Field: West Virginia traveled to University Park, Pennsylvania, to compete at the two-day PSU National Open from Jan. 27-28 ... WVU tallied two runner-up finishes throughout the weekend with its first on Friday, thanks to sophomore Danique Bryan in the women's long jump ... Coach Sean Cleary after the final day of the PSU National Open: "This meet, while with its positive moments, was overall not what we were expecting. This was an opportunity to hit the road and compete in a great venue with strong competition. We believed that combination would bring with it a stronger set of results. We did have some bright spots, while others had the chance to brush off the dust, it's essential that we take this and get better. Turning around in a single week to compete at Akron will allow those that left this meet frustrated to bring their 'A' game."

Notes: The WVU women are now 5-6 in dual meets and 1-1 in Big 12 while the men are 5-4, 1-0 Big 12 ... at Bucknell, senior Emma Skelley led the Mountaineers with three individual wins, while junior diver Michael Proietto, sophomore diver Julia Calcut and freshman Julia Nilton recorded two individual victories each ... at Villanova, Proietto swept both boards for the Mountaineer men and WVU went 1-2-3 on 3-meter ... Merwane El Merini led the way for the WVU men winning two relay events and one individual event

Coach Vic Riggs after competition at Villanova: "Another very solid effort today. The competing yesterday and the long travel day caught up with us a bit, but overall, I feel we did a great job of racing. Our women's 200 medley and freestyle relays were the fastest in season along with our men's 200 free relay, which I feel is great considering everything. Amelie (Currat), (Emma) Skelley, Merwane (El Merini) and James (Koval) continue to compete at a high level. I'm looking forward to how our underclassmen will compete in a month. They have really progressed well this season. Today's competition will be much like day four at the Big 12 Championship and it's good for the freshmen to experience that. It's so important to manage yourself at Big 12s, and we discussed that after the meet."

HEAD COACH:
MIHA LISAC

WEST VIRGINIA TENNIS

This Week in Women's Tennis: Up next, WVU will travel to Richmond, Virginia, to take on the defending Atlantic 10 Champions, VCU on Friday, Feb. 3 ... the Mountaineers will then continue their tour through Virginia on Feb. 4, when they take on William & Mary in Williamsburg.

The Terrapins would go on to win the next two singles matches to secure the match 4-2.

Notes: Saturday's matchup between WVU and Akron was the 15th time the two programs have met ... WVU now holds a 10-5 all-time record over Akron ... senior Kaja Mrgole was the lone Mountaineer to win her singles and doubles match on Sunday ... Shaker leads the team this season with three singles wins, going 3-1 at the No. 1 position

WVU coach Miha Lisac following Sunday's loss to Maryland: "Overall, I thought it was a good battle for both teams. Every single one of the matches were neck-and-neck. It's one of those things, the battles just go one way or another."
