#NYBI

Entering its second year, the New York Bulls Initiative (#NYBI) continues to broaden the awareness of The State University of New York, Buffalo athletics in an effort to build America's next big time college athletics brand.

Danny White, University at Buffalo Director of Athletics, joined by Pete Augustine, President of New Era, announced the launch of NYBI in 2013 and the formation of a volunteer Board of Advisors to provide strategic guidance to the Bulls Athletics leadership team.

As a member of the elite Association of American Universities (AAU) and the largest public university in SUNY system, this initiative will position The State University of New York, Buffalo as the premier athletic department in the state.

Bulls Athletics has seen immediate returns as they have announced several new exciting strategic media partnerships, including deals with ESPN3 to broadcast all basketball and football games and ESPN Radio 1520, 50,000 watt powerhouse. In addition, the athletics department continues to enhance the tailgate experience with a free concert series from major recording stars. As a result, UB led the Mid-American Conference in football attendance last season. Strategic efforts are underway to galvanize the UB alumni base, and the Western New York community, to bring a vibrant college athletics atmosphere to campus.

- LAST TIME OUT: Fourth-seeded UB suffered a 63-55 setback to top-seeded Ohio in the Mid-American Conference Tournament semifinals Friday at Quicken Loans Arena. During the Bulls' (19-12) second MAC semifinal appearance in program history, UB had the Bobcats (26-4) within one at the three-minute mark of the second. After trailing 52-47 at 5:14, junior Mackenzie Loesing and sophomore Alexis Malone posted back-to-back buckets to sneak within 52-51. But that's as close as the Bulls would get. Though the Bobcats led for 30:19, including the entire second half, it was a one-possession game on six occasions over the final 10 minutes of play. Ohio answered with a three, before Malone hit a pair from the line 1:24 later. The Bobcats responded with a Lexie Baldwin layup and would outscore UB, 6-2, at the line over the final 39 seconds to seal the win. Loesing led the Bulls with 14 points, while Sharkey and Smith added 12 apiece. Smith went 4-for-6 from three, a career-high performance. Malone chipped in eight.

Donning the Blue & White for the first time this season, the squad brings a wealth of success and playing experience to the Bulls' lineup. Suchan and the Ups sisters have been with the squad all season, while Oursler, Reid and Wilkins joined during the semester break.

AUSSIE, AUSSIE, AUSSIE (OI, OI, OI)

G'day to the freshmen Ups sisters & Melbourne duo. Assistant coach Cherie Cordoba, an Australian, recruited the twins from New South Wales to Western New York. Two additional aussies, Stephanie Reid and Courtney Wilkins, joined Katherine and Liisa for the 2015 portion of the season following their respective high school graduations in Victoria.

TRIPLE-DOUBLE

Not only does the UB roster sport identical twins from the land down under, two additional student-athletes are twins, just not of one another. Junior guard Karin Moss and senior forward Christa Baccas each have fraternal twin sisters.

2014-15 UB WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Felisha Legette-Jack

Head Coach • Third Season • Syracuse '89

Felisha Legette-Jack was named the 12th head coach in Buffalo women's basketball history on June 14, 2012. In her third season at the helm of the Bulls, Legette-Jack led the Bulls to 17 wins a year ago, the most compiled in a season since 2003.

UB saw major improvements in Legette-Jack's second season. The Bulls increased their 2012-13 win output by five, culminating with the team's highest-ever seed for the MAC tournament at number four overall.

The offense saw a boost in scoring production, improving from 61.2 points to 68.5 points per game, the highest scoring average by a team since 2000-01. Three Bulls were honored by the Mid-American Conference on postseason teams. Mackenzie Loesing was named to the second team, Kristen Sharkey earned third-team honors and Alexis Malone secured the all-freshman team recognition.

In her first season patrolling the sidelines of Alumni Arena, UB went 8-8 in the MAC and advanced to the quarterfinals of the MAC Tournament. Loesing made the all-freshman team and was joined by Christa Baccas in earning All-MAC Honorable Mention.

A New York native with 12 years of Division I head coaching experience, Legette-Jack spent six years as head coach at Indiana University before coming to Buffalo. She led the Hoosiers to three postseason appearances, winning 18 or more games in each of those years. In 2008-09, Indiana won a program record-tying 21 games. While in Bloomington, Legette-Jack knew how to get the most out of her players, both on the court and in the classroom, as evident by her 21 Academic All-Big Ten selections in six seasons. On the basketball floor, the Hoosiers won five games over nationally-ranked opponents, including a victory over fourth-ranked Ohio State in 2010.

Prior to taking the reins at Indiana, Legette-Jack led Hofstra University to unprecedented levels of success. She guided Hofstra to one of its best seasons in school history in 2005-06. The Pride's 19 victories stood as the second-most in school history, and the 12 league triumphs tied a school record. In addition to the team success, Hofstra ranked among the CAA's top three in scoring offense (69.5 ppg), field goal percentage defense (.379), rebounding offense (43.0), rebounding margin (+3.9), assists per game (16.0), steals (11.03), offensive rebounds (16.73), defensive rebounding (26.27) and three-point field goals per game (5.37).

Legette-Jack arrived at Hofstra after two years as an assistant to Joanne P. McCallie at Michigan State. Legette-Jack served as the Spartans' recruiting coordinator, supervised the team's academic progress and preseason and postseason conditioning programs and helped sign the nation's 14th-best recruiting class in 2001-02. Legette-Jack helped orchestrate one of the nation's top turnarounds from 2000-01 to 2001-02. In 2000-01, MSU was 10-18 overall, but the Spartans responded by posting a 19-13 record in 2001-02, capped by a WNIT semifinal appearance. The 19 wins included three victories over nationally-ranked opponents. She recruited the nucleus of the Spartans' 2005 national finalist club.

Outside of the college ranks, Legette-Jack has also had success with USA Basketball, serving on two different coaching staffs where the United States won gold medals. In 2005, she helped coach the Americans to gold at the U19 World Championships and in the summer of 2003, Legette-Jack served as an assistant when Team USA won gold at the FIBA World Championships in Sibenik, Croatia. That team featured the top two players in the 2004 WNBA Draft.

Legette-Jack worked as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at her alma mater, Syracuse University, from 1993-2000. In addition to handling team travel, tape exchange and overseeing the conditioning program, Legette-Jack recruited two Gatorade Players of the Year to the Orange. Syracuse also boasted a 100-percent graduation rate during her tenure.

A 1989 Syracuse graduate with a double major in child and family studies and psychology, Legette-Jack scored 1,526 points and grabbed 927 rebounds. Legette-Jack graduated as the all-time leading scorer and rebounder in program history, and now ranks fifth and third. She won 1985 Big East Rookie of the Year honors and earned all-league laurels three times in her career. An inductee into the Greater Syracuse Hall of Fame, the Syracuse Urban League Hall of Fame and the Syracuse University Orange Plus Hall of Fame, Legette-Jack was one of 15 players named to the Big East Conference Silver Anniversary Team in 2004.

After graduation from Syracuse, Legette-Jack became head girls basketball coach at Westhill High School in Syracuse. She posted a 26-13 ledger in two seasons there, and five of her players earned Division I scholarships. Legette-Jack then spent two years as an assistant coach at Boston College, where the Golden Eagles recorded a 100-percent graduation rate during her tenure.

Born Sept. 4, 1966, in Syracuse, Legette-Jack and her husband, David, have a 15-year-old son, David Maceo.
