Last Week in Women's Basketball: No. 24-ranked West Virginia dropped a pair of close contests to No. 21 Oklahoma (57-54) and No. 4 Baylor (71-61) ... WVU held a 16-point lead at OU in the first half, but the Sooners outscored WVU 24-10 in the third quarter and held on in the final period to secure the victory ... four Mountaineers reached double figures, as sophomore Teana Muldrow led WVU with 16 points ... the Mountaineers led Baylor by eight points in the first quarter, but the Lady Bears used a 15-1 second quarter run to take a five-point lead ... despite the Mountaineers' efforts to chip the game to five points in the second half, BU held on for its eighth consecutive win with a 71-61 victory ... freshman Tynice Martin led West Virginia with 17 points, while Lanay Montgomery had a team-best 10 rebounds.

Notes: West Virginia (16-6, 5-4 Big 12) needs one more victory to match the regular-season win total from 2014-15 ... the Mountaineers finished 2014-15 regular season with a 17-14 overall record and a 7-11 mark in Big 12 conference play ... West Virginia leads the conference and ranks seventh nationally with 6.2 blocks per game ... WVU's field goal percentage defense of 34.2 is 17th nationally ... the Mountaineers have scored 30 or more points off the bench in nine consecutive games ... WVU's 31.6 points per game off the bench leads the Big 12 ... senior Bria Holmes is the Big 12 Conference's active career leader with 1,781 points ... Holmes' 16.8 points per game ranks third in the Big 12 ... Lanay Montgomery ranks second in the Big 12 with a 59.5 field goal percentage and 2.9 blocks per game ... Montgomery is two blocks away from reaching 200 deflections in her career ... Teana Muldrow remains second on the team with 11.0 points per game, while freshman Tynice Martin follows with 9.6 ppg.

Coach Mike Carey after Saturday's loss to Baylor: "I thought we played hard, but we didn't play smart. This game was going to be won in the paint and that's exactly how it was won. We just didn't do a good job. When Lanay (Montgomery) was out there, we didn't do a good job guarding. We were in foul trouble with Teana (Muldrow) in the first half. That hurt us. They are a good team, and I think we're a good team. I just think they can bring more bodies off the bench than we can, especially inside."

Coach Sean Cleary after the PSU National Invitational: "Today was a little bit of everything," said coach Sean Cleary. "We had some great performances that we are proud of and will continue to work on, as well as some that we would like to forget. It's very important that we come home from this trip and make the right moves before Big 12s arrive. We need four of five more ladies to emerge and be ready for the championship portion of our season. To be ready for that, we must embrace the next 30 days as they are the most important days of the year thus far."

Coach Vic Riggs from Saturday's meet at OSU: "Today I put the teams in a difficult position, and I feel that they responded to it well," said coach Vic Riggs. "For the women, we took a different approach and raced one or two events to take the mental approach of preparing for those events for Big 12's. The men just weren't as sharp as they needed to be in order to beat Buffalo. However, both teams competed very hard. We had several people swim faster than last night. Today's situation will definitely help us prepare for the third day of the Big 12's, and that was the goal."
