Coach Sean Cleary after the High Point Team Challenge: "This was an enjoyable meet from start to finish. While we were expecting more from a few of the women, we did have some very good performances. Running on a flat 200 meters track provides an opportunity to throw the stop watch away and simply compete. The jumpers had a very nice weekend a week ago, but they seemed a little off today. We need to continue working on consistency and not allowing small things get in the way of big performances. I was especially pleased with Tori (Bertrand) and Candace (Jones). Our coaches expect a great deal out of our athletes, and we need to keep getting better."
