Coach Randy Mazey after Saturday's 5-0 win: "That was as good of a team victory we've had since I've been here. We played great defense, we pitched really well and had some really timely hitting. Some of the older guys in the lineup sacrificed some personal goals to try and help the team win, which was encouraging. Ray Guerrini's double was the play of the game, it set the tone for the rest of the game. He's seeing the ball really well now. Beyond what he's seeing at the plate, he's shown great leadership, he's catching really well and keeping the team together. I couldn't be happier for him."
