Thrasher

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (March 14, 2016) - Following her performances at the 2016 NCAA Rifle Championships, freshman Ginny Thrasher has been named the West Virginia University Student-Athlete of the Week, presented by University Apartments.

The native of Springfield, Virginia, helped the No. 1-ranked Mountaineers clinch their nation-best 18th national title on March 12, at the University of Akron's Louis & Freda Stile Field House.

In addition to the team's four-peat, Thrasher made it a clean sweep in the individual competitions. The 2016 Great American Rifle Conference (GARC) Rookie of the Year captured the NCAA smallbore (586, 461.5) and air rifle (593, 208.8) titles, and she became the second Mountaineer ever, and the first since Mountaineer alum Petra Zublasing in 2013, to claim both individual NCAA awards.

During the first day of competition, Thrasher advanced to the individual smallbore final, shooting 586 (193 kneeling, 199 prone, 194 standing) to tie for second place in the open relay. Thrasher, the 2016 GARC smallbore champion, then scored 461.5 in the individual final for the discipline win.

On day two, Thrasher finished with a team-best 593 (99, 98, 98, 99, 99, 100) air rifle in the open relay. In the individual final, Thrasher captured the title with a 208.8 final score to push the Mountaineers' overall NCAA title count to 25.

For her efforts all weekend, Thrasher also earned the NCAA Championships' Top Performer Award.

WEST VIRGINIA BASEBALL

This Week in Baseball: WVU plays its first true mid-week game of the season when it hosts Radford on Tuesday at 3 p.m. ET at Monongalia County Ballpark ... Big 12 Conference play begins this weekend, when the Mountaineers travel to TCU for a three-game series against the Horned Frogs, beginning on Friday.

Last Week in Baseball: West Virginia won its home-opening series vs. Old Dominion, with a 4-3 win on Friday night before a doubleheader on Saturday, beginning with a 10-inning, 5-4 loss and concluding with a 12-inning, 6-5 victory ... all three victories featured comebacks for WVU, in the sixth inning on Friday, in the first and ninth innings in Saturday's opener and in the ninth and 12th innings in Saturday's finale.

Notes: West Virginia is 9-4 on the year after opening its home slate with a series win against Old Dominion this weekend ... after a 4-3 comeback win on Friday in the series-opener against Old Dominion, WVU played a doubleheader on Saturday with both games going into extra innings, a 5-4 10-inning loss in the opener before a 12-inning, 6-5 victory in the nightcap ... the Mountaineers trailed six times in the three-game series against the Monarchs and came back to erase the deficit five of those times, including twice in the ninth inning and once in the 12th ... Saturday's two extra-inning games were the first two of the season for WVU ... Friday's crowd of 1,135 was the fifth-largest crowd to see a non-conference game at Monongalia County Ballpark, only to be surpassed by Saturday's crowd of 1,319.

Coach Randy Mazey: "Jimmy Galusky continues to impress with the way he's playing. I'm super proud of our guys. Jimmy hit the leadoff triple to tie it in the bottom of the ninth, and then Kyle Davis scored him with the sacrifice fly. That's four times for Jimmy to get a big hit late in the game. That's what you can't teach, that's just what you've got inside your chest. He's got what it takes to be a championship-type player."

Coach Miha Lisac after the match at Marshall: "The doubles point was huge, and it cost us the match overall. It was a good battle, and we had players respond well in singles play, but the doubles point was huge today. Overall, we responded well going from doubles to singles, and we battled back into the match."

WVU Diving coach Mike Grapner after NCAA Zones: "Looking at the big picture I'm thrilled with the progress of such a young team. They have all made a lot of improvements this year. I'm also very thankful for the leadership and guidance of senior Lindsay Schmidt. She set the bar very high for the team this year and I'll miss having her on the boards next season."

WVU coach Vic Riggs on Marsh's NCAA qualification: "The staff and I are very happy for Andrew, and his invitation to NCAAs is well deserved. This is his second trip to NCAAs, which is a tremendous accomplishment for him, and he's only the second member of our men's team to make it in back-to-back years since our staff arrived at WVU. One of our goals as a team is to get an individual to NCAAs and with Andrew's invitation this will be the third year in a row that we have done that."

WVU associate coach Damion Dennis on Marsh: "You can see how Andrew is more prepared now than he's ever been. Having that experience from last year at NCAAs has allowed him to be more comfortable in his preparation for this year's championships. He knows that feeling already, and I think he can be one of the best backstrokers in the country."

Coach Jon Hammond said after the team's four-peat: "I am really proud of the team, and I am glad that we were able to come out on top at the end of the weekend. It's awesome. It's such a huge credit to the team. This is one of the best teams that we have ever had. Their strength all year has been their consistency, and to be able to win both events is a great achievement. We will certainly take our hits this year, but with guys like Max, you can see we are building for the future success of this program. It might be hard to see now, but it will pay off for the future. I’m proud of the performance Max had this week, especially the final round. At one stretch he birdied four in a row, and several of those holes he birdied played back into strong wind.
