Coach Marlon LeBlanc after WVU's win at No. 22 Akron: "The players were excellent on the evening. The guys fought valiantly, they fought hard, and I'm awfully proud of my team. Akron's a great team, but I thought that we had a great gameplan and the players executed. You go on the road and score 30 seconds into the game, you have to feel pretty good. As a coach, you're still hoping your players don't change the approach, and they didn't. We were stout, did what we needed to do and got the goal. At the end of the day, it's a good win against a very good team, but we have three more games to play."

I thought both the men's and women's teams' relays continued to get better, and we improved on some of our little things that we discussed last night. With this being our third weekend in a row of racing, the teams fought hard. On the women's side I'm really proud of their effort today. Being the third meet that we haven't had a full squad because injuries, for the ladies to battle back to have it come down to the last relay shows their fight. Now we have four weeks to get ready for NC State."
