WEST VIRGINIA CROSS COUNTRY

This Week in Cross Country: The Mountaineers' 2016 campaign has concluded.

Last Week in Cross Country: WVU redshirt juniors Maggie Drazba and Jillian Forsey concluded the 2016 season at the NCAA Division I Cross Country Championships in Terre Haute, Indiana, on Saturday, Nov. 19 ... in a field of 250 runners in the women's 6k race at the LaVern Gibson Championship Cross Country Course, Drazba placed 58th and Forsey finished in 97th ... Drazba, a native of St. Mary's, West Virginia, placed 58th in the championship race with a time of 20:34.8, her best career finish at the NCAA Championships ... Forsey, a Stephenville, Newfoundland and Labrador, native, crossed the finish line in 97th with a time of 20:49.8.

Notes: This year marks the fourth time in program history that two Mountaineers represented the Old Gold and Blue at the National Championships ... Rebecca Stallwood and Merissa Sexsmith were the duo in 1999, Megan Metcalfe and Tara Struyk in 2003 and Kaitlyn Gillespie and Sarah-Anne Brault in 2010.

Coach Sean Cleary after the NCAA Championships: "We are leaving Indiana with very mixed emotions. Maggie ran a fantastic race. This was without a doubt the best race of Maggie's WVU career. Running within 10 seconds of an All-American award puts the stamp on a wonderful comeback for Maggie. This sets her up very well for the rest of the year and she will leave this meet knowing that the best running years of her life are in front of her. For Jillian, we are heart broken. A fall between 2-3k took her out of the race. Jill had a much better start than she did in 2014. Both Jill and Maggie are committed to having their entire team with them in the NCAA Finals next fall. They have the ability, and I have no doubt that they will work hard enough as a unit to accomplish that goal."

Coach Vic Riggs after the third day of the NC State Invitational: "It was a great last day for the men's and women's teams. Our women's backstrokers got us off to a great start this morning by placing five in scoring position, and we just kept rolling from there. The teams earned 24 final swims coming out of prelims, highlighted by Emma Harris earning our fourth A final of the weekend. Overall this was one of our best mid-season invites. We finished the week with seven NCAA B cuts and 16 top-10 times in the history of the program, and we had 98 percent season-best times for the women and 96 percent for the men. We're young and getting better each month, which is exciting. To have as many swims in the A and B finals against many swimmers who are NCAA qualifiers is great for us and will only build our confidence moving forward."

Katrina Pardee registered a season-best 17 points and grabbed a career-high six rebounds in the win.

Notes: West Virginia has limited its first three opponents to shooting just 23.6 percent (41-of-174) from the field and 17.6 percent (35-of-58) from behind the three-point line in the first three games this season ... as of Sunday, WVU ranks second nationally in scoring defense (42.0 points per game) and fifth in the NCAA with a 23.6 field goal percentage defense ... coach Mike Carey recorded his 325th victory at West Virginia against Coppin State ... Carey coaches his 500th career game at West Virginia against High Point on Nov. 27 ... Tynice Martin has reached double-figures in five consecutive games and 11 out of the last 13 ... Teana Muldrow has recorded double-figure contests in four consecutive games ... Martin has made 19 consecutive free throws dating back to last season's Princeton game on March 18, 2016 ... Lanay Montgomery's seven blocks against Coppin State were the most since deflected eight vs. Temple in April 2015 ... Coach Mike Carey after Saturday's win over Coppin State: "What am I taking from it? Not a lot. Hopefully, not a lot. I'm very disappointed. You know, I don't want to be negative. It is what it is. I've said it all along, if we don't get a lot better, man, it's going to be a long year. It's up to us to get better. It's up to me to do a better job coaching in practice because evidently we're not getting it done in practice because it's not carrying over to games."

Notes: Christian Monserrat (149) remains undefeated with a team-best 6-0 record ... Jacob A. Smith's upset of No. 6 Aaron Studebaker puts the all-time series between the two at 1-1 ... the two previously met in the first round of the 2015 NCAA Championship with Studebaker earning the win ... it also marks the third time this season a WVU wrestler has defeated an opponent ranked ahead of him ...
