Coach Sean Cleary after the WVU Open: "Well this is it, the beginning of the indoor season really officially starts today. We had about half the group competing today. I think it was a good rust-buster. It was good to see the team in one place at one time. Ultimately I believe this will help us for two weeks from now when we actually hit the road. Scheduling home meets are always fun because you sleep in your own bed, the parents are here, there is some atmosphere in this building today, so we'll take a little bit of momentum, we'll inject a number of new faces into the next competition and we'll probably learn a lot more about who we are in two weeks once we go to Penn State."
