Coach Sean Cleary after the Akron Invitational: "Overall, we had more high quality performances than a week ago. The vaulters came out and competed much tougher this weekend. Week by week we should see them clear more bars. Danique (Bryan) and Shamoya (McNeil) continue to improve as we work our way through the season. Both need a few more meets to be in good position for the Big 12 Championship. This was Candace's (Jones) first 800 meter of the season, and therefore we feel she did a nice job. It's our hope that we see her drop a few more seconds off that time as we continue to race."
