WEST VIRGINIA at TCU // POSTGAME NOTES Amon G. Carter Stadium // October 29, 2015

There were no first-time starters for West Virginia at TCU. A total of 35 Mountaineers have made at least one start during their careers. Top on that list are Nick Kwiatkoski (31) and Kyle Rose (27).

Noble Nwachukwu recorded a sack in the second quarter. He leads the Mountaineers in sacks with 3.5 on the season.

Skyler Howard's 32-yard touchdown pass to Shelton Gibson in the second quarter was Gibson's team-leading seventh receiving touchdown of the season. Gibson has now scored a touchdown in three consecutive games.

Skyler Howard has thrown a touchdown pass in every game this season.

Josh Lambert's 51-yard field goal in the second quarter was his longest of the season. He is now 6-for-13 from 50 yards or more during his career.

TCU's 57-yard field goal at the end of the first half was the longest-ever field goal kicked against the Mountaineers. The previous longest kick was a 55-yard field goal by John Benestad of Rutgers in 1990.

Wendell Smallwood had at least 100 rushing yards for the fourth time this season. Smallwood now has six 100-yard rushing games for his career.
